

We are looking for new Trustees!

Are you a member of Tameside's ethnic minority community?

Are you passionate about supporting diverse communities in Tameside?

Do you want to join a dynamic forward-thinking Charity?

Do you have lived experience, local knowledge, or community connections?

If you have answered 'yes' then we want to hear from you!

Diversity Matters North West (DMNW) is a registered charity and company limited by guarantee. It provides a range of services including social and physical activities, training programmes, volunteering and support to women in crisis. Join our Board of trustees and help support our grassroots charity run by and for women.

The Board wishes to further diversify and complement their existing expertise and skills base and has opened two positions for members of the local ethnic minority communities to join the Board as trustees. Candidates must have the drive, initiative and demonstrate commitment to local development.

We seek a minimum commitment of 2 hours every three months (currently Trustees meet quarterly) 5pm-7pm on a Wednesday (this is subject to review), but if you can spare more time than this there are opportunities to be involved in our working groups.

This is not a salaried position. Trustee roles are voluntary and unpaid. However, reasonable out-of-pocket expenses can be reimbursed.

To join our board, please download and follow the procedure in our Trustee Application Pack (alternatively you can request a pack to be collected from the centre):

Hyde Healthy Living Centre, 20 Great Norbury Street, Hyde, SK14 1BR

If you have any queries or want an informal chat about the role, please contact:

Rehana Begum, Chief Officer & Company Secretary or

Gemma Gaskell, Chief Officer.

Both are available on 0161 368 3268
